While some patrons have criticized the service as forgetful and the food as merely decent, others rave about the delicious burgers, particularly their accolades for the mushroom onion burger and the savory buffalo cauliflower. The atmosphere is praised for its laid-back, family-friendly vibe, ideal for larger groups. Customers also appreciate the extensive drink selection. Despite some lapses in hospitality reported by a few, many return for the quality food and welcoming environment, making it a recurring spot for those in search of good burgers and local brews.
