St. Paul's latest Vietnamese restaurant has drawn a blend of praise and critique from diners. While many rave about the delightful and authentic pho, praising the clear broth and charming atmosphere, others express disappointment with inconsistent food quality and service. Some dishes, like the curry chicken and spring rolls, have garnered enthusiastic reviews, while a few items have been labeled overcooked or lacking flavor. Despite the varying experiences, the friendly staff and reasonably priced menu offer a potential hidden gem for casual meals.
