Brits restaurant in Charlottetown has been a favorite among visitors for its gluten-free menu, until last August when prices saw a significant increase. Despite being just an average fish and chip joint, Brits seemed to have raised their prices to Michelin-star levels, disappointing many loyal customers. Some found the food overpriced and not up to British standards, with soggy fries and greasy fish. However, others still enjoyed their experience, praising the friendly service, large portions, and delicious homemade tartar sauce. Overall, opinions about Brits vary, with some vowing never to return due to the high prices, while others continue to appreciate the tasty fish and chips offered at this cozy establishment.
