The restaurant from Spokane offers 57 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $15.8. Pizza Pipeline has recently attracted mixed feedback from its customers, highlighting significant inconsistencies in service and food quality. While some patrons experienced long wait times and incorrect orders, others reported subpar pizzas with unusual textures. Longtime fans express disappointment over recent changes to beloved recipes, questioning their commitment to quality. However, amidst the challenges, standout service from staff like the new employee Rose has been positively noted, with some customers appreciating her attentive approach. As the restaurant navigates these hurdles, it faces the critical task of balancing customer satisfaction and maintaining the standards that originally drew patrons in.
