The restaurant from Concord offers 117 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $13.1.

Nestled within Whole Foods, this vibrant eatery has become a go-to spot for both vegans and non-vegans craving delicious plant-based burgers. Customers rave about the diverse menu, particularly the unique “chicken” options and mouthwatering sauces. However, some have noted a decline in food quality, with inconsistent burger sizes and flavors, leading to a few mixed experiences. Despite minor grievances regarding oiliness and sweetness, the ambiance, highlighted by bright colors and outdoor seating, creates a pleasant dining experience.

Excellent customer service shines through, making this charming burger joint a worthwhile stop for a quick, healthy bite.
