Yet, while the atmosphere is inviting, service seems to falter, with many guests noting long waits for drinks and food. The menu features acceptable, yet basic fare that some feel doesn't match the fine dining prices. Although certain dishes, like the crab-stuffed shrimp, have impressed, the consistency remains a concern. Nevertheless, positive experiences abound, particularly during special events like weddings and luncheons, where attentive staff and quality food shine. With improved management and service, this spot could truly fulfill its potential.
