You can view the categories on the menu below. Nestled in the heart of Orange County, this Hawaiian restaurant has sparked a variety of sentiments among diners. While many appreciate the generous portions and delightful dishes, such as Spam Musubi and chicken katsu, the overall dining experience is marred by inconsistent customer service. Patrons report instances of rude staff and inaccurate closing times that detract from the visit. However, some guests have praised the cleanliness and warm atmosphere, complemented by soothing Hawaiian music. Ultimately, while the food garners praise, it's the service that leaves many reconsidering their return. A mixed bag that evokes both nostalgia and disappointment.
