The restaurant reviewed offers a friendly, neighborhood feel with a cozy atmosphere reminiscent of an old club. While some customers found the food to be okay but not excellent, others were impressed by the delicious vodka chicken and the diverse menu offerings. Despite some hiccups in service, such as food coming out at different times and confusion over orders, the staff was described as competent, pleasant, and attentive. Overall, the restaurant is considered a great standby for reliable comfort food and excellent cocktails, with the only drawback being a high noise level during busy times.
