The restaurant from Chase City offers 71 different dishes and drinks on the menu for an average price of $14.0. Jerico's restaurant offers a mixed bag of reviews, with common themes including long wait times for service and inconsistent experiences with staff. The standout feature of the restaurant appears to be the prime rib, which many patrons praise as the best in town. Despite some service hiccups, the food quality is consistently highlighted as excellent, with a variety of options available to suit different tastes. The restaurant's First Nation theme adds a unique touch, with dishes like Eggs Benedict served on Bannock bread. While the prices are noted to be on the higher side, the overall dining experience seems to be worth the cost, especially for special occasions or when looking to enjoy a unique culinary experience in the area.
