The seafood linguine is rich and delicious, and they have a good wine list. However, some diners found the service to be inattentive and lacking finesse, with cocktails that fell short and a disappointing caprese salad.

Despite the mixed reviews, the restaurant is known for its amazing olive tapenade and consistently delicious food. Reservations are highly recommended as tables tend to fill up quickly. With a menu full of excellent pasta dishes, meats, and a wide selection of Italian wines, Il Terrazzo is a top pick for those looking for an authentic and exquisite dining experience in Victoria.
