The menu of Maki Ramen Leith St from Edinburgh contains about 86 different courses and drinks. On average you pay about £8 for a dish / drink. Maki Ramen has garnered attention for its diverse offerings, showcased through beautifully plated dishes ideal for social media. However, diners have reported inconsistencies in portion sizes and authenticity. While some praise the rich flavors of the black garlic ramen and the freshness of the sushi, others are disappointed by the oily soup and meager serving sizes, with sushi rolls appearing smaller than advertised. Service is mostly polite, though some guests have noted lapses in the typical high standards. Overall, Maki Ramen presents both delightful and frustrating dining moments, leaving patrons split on their return.
