At this small Panda Express location, guests report a range of experiences that highlight inconsistency in service and food quality. Many have noted overcrowding and slow kitchen response during lunch hours, leading to frustrating wait times. Portion sizes have come under scrutiny, with some diners finding the servings inadequate. Additionally, the absence of essential staples like white rice raises eyebrows, reminiscent of fast-food chains lacking signature items. However, amidst the mixed reviews, there are praise for certain dishes, like black pepper beef and Kung Pao chicken, which some claim rival even authentic Chinese offerings, demonstrating the restaurant's potential for delightful flavors.
