The menu of Lazy Llama Cantina from Atlanta contains about 88 different menus and drinks. On average you pay about $10.5 for a dish / drink. Nestled in a cozy location with inviting outdoor seating, this restaurant delights with flavorful dishes like street corn, well-seasoned tacos, and a vast tequila selection complemented by creative cocktails. However, despite the tasty food and drinks, service consistently falls short—long wait times, inattentive staff, and apparent understaffing dampen the experience. Guests often struggle to get timely attention, and some report unprofessional behavior behind the scenes. Limited parking and inconsistent seating arrangements add to the frustrations. While the culinary offerings shine, improvements in staffing and service quality are essential for this promising spot to reach its full potential.
