The restaurant from South Lake Tahoe offers 125 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $39.9. Located in South Lake Tahoe, this restaurant offers a surprising array of vegan options, including a cauliflower crust and vegan cheese that left one visitor pleasantly surprised. The Veggie Feast option was a hit, featuring unique toppings like broccolini, making for a good meal despite the odd atmosphere and limited menu options. However, Thanksgiving dinner did not meet expectations, with dry turkey and bland sides leading to disappointment. Another visitor was unimpressed by the lackluster service and rundown equipment, a far cry from previous positive experiences. On a brighter note, the old fashions and prime rib received high praise, along with the excellent service provided by waitress, Anastasia. Despite some pricing concerns and menu discrepancies, the staff's friendliness and welcoming atmosphere left many with a positive impression overall.
