The menu of Java Beach Cafe from San Andreas includes 98 courses. On average the courses or drinks on the menu cost approximately $9.0. You can view the categories on the menu below. Java Beach offers an absolutely incredible selection of food and drinks that cannot be topped, making it a must-visit spot in San Francisco. The iced butterscotch latte with soy milk was described as amazing, and the hummus veggie wheat bagel was fresh and delicious. While the interior could use a little updating, the overall experience was enjoyable. With a casual beachfront vibe and plenty of outdoor seating for people-watching, Java Beach is the perfect place to grab a coffee or a quick bite while enjoying the ocean views. The cafe offers a large selection of beverages and food options, including breakfast burritos. Despite being quite busy on weekends, the wait is worth it for the tasty drinks and freshly made sandwiches and wraps. With a unique atmosphere thanks to the nearby birds, Java Beach on Judah is a great choice for delicious coffee drinks and warm bagels, although it's best to avoid their toast. The laid-back atmosphere and friendly staff make it a great spot to visit.
