The restaurant from Wilmington offers 105 different dishes and drinks on the menu for an average price of $12.2. Smithfield has long been celebrated for its hearty Southern fare, but recent visits indicate a decline in certain beloved menu items. While the potato salad and baked beans continue to impress, the fried chicken has faced criticism for being tough and dry, detracting from its former juiciness and crispness. Diners have also noted inconsistencies in portion sizes, with some sandwiches arriving disappointingly small. However, many still rave about the BBQ and report satisfying service and a clean atmosphere. Overall, while some staples need attention, the restaurant remains a popular choice for comfort food lovers.
