While the brisket often garners mixed reviews for its dryness, the succulent ribs and flavorful sauces like Bourbon Molasses stand out. Diners rave about the delicious sides, particularly the mac and cheese, though some find other options like potato salad lacking. Despite occasional service hiccups and higher-than-expected prices, the warm hospitality and extensive craft beer selection make it a commendable choice. Overall, Smokestack balances a hip vibe with hearty BBQ, appealing to both casual diners and enthusiasts alike.
