The menu of Nido Caffé from Miami contains about 119 different dishes and drinks. On average you pay about $25.2 for a dish / drink. Discovering this gem in Dallas was a delightful surprise, with rich and intense food that hits the spot. The upstairs area offers a fantastic view, perfect for a cool breezy day. The service was exceptionally friendly, though some dishes like the Tuna Tartare and Chicken Parm weren't as impressive.

Despite the food being good, the prices seemed high for the small and unassuming restaurant. The neighborhood charm and welcoming staff make it a great spot for a cozy meal, especially if you're looking for authentic Afghani cuisine. The innovative menu and delicious offerings make it a place worth revisiting, with homemade pasta dishes that are simply divine. Overall, NiDo Caffé is a solid choice for those seeking a warm atmosphere, friendly service, and flavorful dishes.
