The menu of Ray's from Stanford comprises about 119 different dishes and drinks. On average you pay about $10.2 for a dish / drink. Nestled within the local campus, this restaurant offers a mixed experience for diners.

While the prices are reasonable and portions generous, service inconsistencies and bland flavors mar the experience. Some patrons enjoy nostalgic flavors and recommend dishes like the Roasted Butternut Squash Salad, noting room for improvement in freshness and seasoning. Others express disappointment with slow service and misunderstandings over menu items. Despite its potential as a casual dining spot perfect for studying or watching games, guests are cautioned to manage expectations, particularly regarding menu variety and food quality. Overall, it's a place with promise but room for enhancement.
