The restaurant from Montréal offers 121 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of CA$8. Ta Chido, a vibrant Mexican snack bar, offers a range of experiences that leave diners with varied impressions. While the decor and ambiance are inviting, with friendly service and inventive cocktails, the food can be hit or miss. Signature items like the ham and pineapple sandwiches and black bean tacos shine, but other offerings, such as the flan and mole, have disappointed some patrons. Though the restaurant has expanded its menu, authenticity has come into question. Overall, Ta Chido remains a viable option for casual bites and drinks, but diners should navigate the menu wisely.
