You can view the categories on the menu below. Nunzio's is a restaurant in Collingswood that elicits a range of opinions. Some diners complain about the lackluster food and service, while others rave about the authentic Tuscan experience, delicious dishes, and attentive staff. The atmosphere is described as beautiful with attractive hanging panels to handle noise. The limited menu on Valentine's Day received mixed reviews, with some finding it overpriced and others enjoying the salmon and veal parm. The restaurant has become a favorite for many, with excellent food, a selection of beers, and great service. The crab soup was deemed bland and watery, but the drinks were good. The pork dish and pastrami ribs received mixed reviews, but the burger was a hit. In summary, Nunzio's offers a bit of Italy with a range of dishes that can delight or disappoint, depending on individual tastes.
