The menu of PlumpJack Cafe from Truckee contains about 136 different courses and drinks. On average you pay about $17.6 for a dish / drink. This restaurant in Palisades offers a cozy atmosphere with some issues like loud children and inconsistent service. The menu has some highlights like the butternut squash soup and mahi-mahi catch of the day, but the bison hanger steak is not recommended due to being overpriced. Despite some setbacks, the PlumpJack experience overall is enjoyable, especially with their new menu items and exceptional wine selection. Diners can expect delicious and fresh dishes like Mariscada and octopus, along with friendly service. The dining room can get noisy, but the outstanding food makes it worth it. This restaurant in Olympic Valley offers world-class dining with must-have dishes like the cheese plate, pork chop, and meatballs. Despite some menu limitations, the food quality, service, and warm atmosphere make it a favorite dining spot in North Lake Tahoe.
