Despite a few reports of slow service, cold food, and management issues, this restaurant also shines with moments of exceptional hospitality. The dining area is clean and inviting, with standout employees like Silvia providing warm, attentive service and maintaining food quality. Some customers praise the fresh, well-prepared breakfast sandwiches and the tasty new breakfast sticks. The drive-thru experiences vary, ranging from frustrating delays and dismissive attitudes to friendly, enthusiastic staff who clearly enjoy their work. While there are notable concerns about food handling and consistency, guests seeking a welcoming atmosphere and quality meals may still find reasons to return.
