The menu of Uva from RICHBORO comprises about 140 different courses and drinks. On average you pay about $17.9 for a dish / drink. UVA restaurant offers a mix of highs and lows according to recent reviews. While the food is consistently delicious and well-prepared, the service seems to be a point of contention for some diners. Complaints range from slow service to inattentive staff, with some customers feeling forgotten after finishing their meals. The atmosphere varies depending on the day, with Saturday nights being better suited to larger groups due to the noise levels. Another point of concern is the 3.5% surcharge for credit card payments, which some find off-putting. On a positive note, many diners praise the food quality, with standout dishes like the scallops, shrimp, and langostino lobster over homemade linguini receiving high praise. Overall, UVA seems to offer a mixed experience, with some patrons raving about the food and ambiance, while others are left wanting more in terms of service and overall experience.
