Rockmill Tavern has garnered mixed reviews in terms of service, with multiple individuals citing issues with waitstaff. However, the overall consensus seems to be that the atmosphere is great, and the food and beer offered are quite impressive. There are limited menu options, but the quality of the dishes seems to offset that. Despite some service hiccups, the staff are generally friendly and accommodating, as seen in the case of Flynn providing excellent service and drink recommendations. The restaurant is commended for its use of local ingredients and the creativity of the dishes, with a special mention for the outstanding mussels appetizer. The lively ambiance and unique cocktails also add to the positive dining experience at Rockmill Tavern, making it a popular choice for patrons.
