The restaurant from Logan offers 151 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $6.7. In a recent review of a local McDonald's, guests experienced a notable divide in quality and service. While some patrons praised the efficient and friendly staff, highlighting exemplary management, others reported troubling issues with cleanliness and food quality. Diners encountered dirty tables, sticky floors, and unsanitary restrooms, alongside problems with undercooked fries and delayed service. Instances of unhelpful or indifferent staff further tarnished the experience for many. Despite a few positive comments, the overwhelming sentiment leans towards dissatisfaction, suggesting a need for significant improvements in both hygiene and customer service at this location.
