The restaurant from Beverly Hills offers 162 different dishes and drinks on the menu for an average price of $12.3. Nestled in a quaint corner of Los Angeles, this small restaurant has garnered attention for its charming ambiance and attentive service. Guests have raved about generous portions, notably the beet salad and beef bourguignon, while breakfast favorites like benedict dishes and crepes have also received high praise. The friendly staff creates a welcoming atmosphere; however, inconsistencies in food quality have raised concerns. Despite some lukewarm reviews, many locals express hope for the restaurant's return, particularly due to its community spirit during the pandemic and their commitment to using fresh, house-made ingredients. A visit promises a delightful experience worth repeating.
