The menu of Scarpetta from Paradise contains about 184 different dishes and drinks. On average you pay about $13.7 for a dish / drink. In a city known for its flashy prices, one might expect to pay a pretty penny at this Vegas restaurant. While the food is said to be good, portions have reportedly shrunk, meaning diners may need to pull from their retirement to afford a satisfying meal. Some visitors found the ambiance lacking, comparing it to a dated nightclub atmosphere with less-than-ideal food options. However, others have praised the breakfast menu, highlighting the convenience of the location and the quality of the service. For those seeking a tasty burger and top-notch service, this spot has received positive reviews, particularly for its attentive waitstaff. With a view of the Bellagio fountains and delicious dishes like duck ravioli and freshly made pasta, this restaurant has become a favorite for many visitors. Despite some mixed reviews on specific dishes, the overall dining experience here seems to be worth repeating.
