The restaurant from Penticton offers 187 different dishes and drinks on the menu for an average price of $71.9. This restaurant in Penticton offers a wide variety of food options, with standout dishes including the shrimp toast, shrimp lo mein, and spicy shrimp with peanuts. The service was accommodating, although lacked some quality check-ins. The overall dining experience was good, with some minor issues like overcooked mussels and soggy cannelloni. The general consensus is that the food is flavorful and delicious, but the menu items can be overpriced. The patio setting is attractive with appropriate spacing between tables, and the service is friendly and timely. While some dishes like the fettucine and tortellini were mediocre, others like the spumoni were excellent. Overall, it received positive reviews for its food, wine selection, attentive staff, and comfortable setting. While some reviewers had minor issues with the flavors of certain dishes, the general consensus was that the restaurant served great meals and had attentive staff. Some reviewers highlighted the variety of gluten-free options available and the careful attention paid to keeping meals separated for gluten-intolerant diners. The ambiance, service, and cuisine were all described as exceptional, with some even dubbing it the best Italian food in the Okanagan. The restaurant was praised for its walled-in patio with grapevines, providing a private and cozy dining experience. The menu offers a wide selection of pastas and other dishes, with standout options like a veal dish with marsala wine. Overall, the Villa Rosa received high praise for its overall dining experience and is considered a top choice for Italian cuisine in Penticton.
