The restaurant from Cleveland offers 188 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $8.2.

Dina's offers a neighborhood pub vibe that attracts a loyal following, but recent reviews reveal a concerning decline in food quality and customer service. While some patrons praise the delicious offerings and attentive staff during busy nights, others recount frustrating experiences with undercooked meals, incorrect orders, and dismissive management. Complaints about overcharging and inadequate responses to customer feedback further mar its reputation. Though many appreciate the casual atmosphere and taste of popular dishes like wings and pizzas, prospective diners are urged to double-check their orders and consider dining in for a better experience. Improvement is needed to regain customer trust.
