The place from Washington, D.C. offers 305 different dishes and drinks on the menu for an average price of $16.0. Located right on the canal, this restaurant offers generous portion sizes and excellent bruschetta made with fresh ingredients. However, some customers experienced disappointing service during their visit and found that the vegan options were limited and not worth the price. Despite these setbacks, the establishment is praised for its lively ambiance, attentive staff, and delicious offerings such as calamari, wings, pizza, Caesar salad, lasagna, and chicken sandwiches. While the noise level in the dining room can be high, the outstanding food makes it all worth it. Additionally, the venue received glowing reviews from a wedding reception attendee who appreciated the accommodating staff and exceptional food. Overall, this restaurant is recommended for a casual outing with good food and atmosphere.
