Nestled in Dothan, this charming restaurant offers a mixed bag of culinary experiences. While some diners enjoyed the flavorful sandwiches, delightful soups, and friendly service, others found disappointment, particularly with misrepresented menu items like the Cuban sandwich. Prices are reasonable for 2024, and the establishment caters well to dietary restrictions, including gluten-free options. With a promising array of dishes and an inviting atmosphere, many patrons plan to return to explore more. Though experiences can vary, the overall sentiment reflects a unique spot worth trying for those seeking a local dining adventure.
