While some patrons praise the generous portions, friendly service, and flavorful dishes, others lament undercooked wings, greasy tenders, and uninviting ambiance. Compliments often highlight exceptional customer service, especially during special outreach efforts. However, reports of rude staff and disappointing food quality dampen the overall experience. Despite its flaws, there are shining moments, particularly for those who arrive on good days to enjoy specialties like the Barbecue Chicken Plate. With ample parking and a family-friendly vibe, Lisa's BBQ continues to draw both loyal and new visitors.
