Here you will find the menu of Elizabeth's in Fairhaven. At the moment, there are 64 meals and drinks on the menu. Located a bit off the beaten path, this hidden gem offers a delightful atmosphere and super friendly service, making it an inviting choice for dinner. Guests rave about the strong drinks, particularly the sangria, and the fish dishes, especially the lightly breaded fish and chips, receive high praise. However, some seafood selections have disappointed, such as the clam chowder, which some found more akin to potato soup. While some flavors have shifted, overall, the restaurant maintains a loyal following thanks to its inviting ambiance and value for money.
