The restaurant from Tacoma offers 68 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $14.5. Nestled in Tacoma, this restaurant has garnered mixed reviews, particularly regarding pricing and portion sizes.

While some diners praise its authentic, flavorful teriyaki and welcoming service, others lament the significant markup compared to online listings and disappointing meal quality. Notably, one reviewer mentioned lackluster meat and rice that fell short of expectations. Despite these criticisms, many loyal customers rave about the personal touch, with staff recalling frequent visitors and fostering a warm atmosphere. With its charm and dedicated fan base, this spot remains a hidden gem for those seeking comfort food, though potential diners should beware of price disparities.
