The menu of Steak And Grape from Bakersfield comprises about 124 different menus and drinks. On average you pay about $33.4 for a dish / drink. In an eclectic mix of dining experiences, this restaurant presents a polarizing image. While some guests rave about its tranquil atmosphere, exceptional service, and delectable dishes—particularly the expertly cooked scallops and diverse wine selection—others lament the service quality and food consistency, with tales of cold meals, bland flavors, and a lack of attentiveness. Despite pricey entrees, reactions vary widely, from complaints of poorly executed prime rib to praise for delightful lobster mac and cheese. Overall, potential diners may find worthwhile dishes amidst inconsistent service, prompting a cautious approach to their culinary adventure at this establishment.
