The menu of Vito's of Port Jefferson from Port Jefferson Station comprises about 176 different dishes and drinks. On average you pay about $27.9 for a dish / drink. This restaurant offers a mix of hits and misses. The service, especially from staff like Henry, is friendly and attentive, enhancing the dining experience. Food quality varies—while fajitas, steak quesadillas, and desserts like flan and tres leches receive praise for flavor and freshness, some appetizers feel uninspired and inconsistently prepared. Beverage specials are a highlight, though drinks can be pricey. Ambiance includes authentic decorations and live music, but noise levels can be overwhelming, making conversation difficult. The space feels dated, and some operational issues—like rushed service and billing errors—detract from overall enjoyment. Worth a visit, but with tempered expectations.
