The restaurant from Lubbock offers 27 different meals and drinks on the card at an average price of $8.1. This restaurant seems to have a bit of a hit or miss reputation. While some customers have experienced amazing food and great service at affordable prices, others have encountered issues such as consistency problems, rude staff, or poor quality food. The menu can be difficult to navigate for those who don't speak Spanish, and portion sizes may be smaller than expected. Wait times can be long, especially during peak hours when the crowd can be a bit sketchy. Overall, some customers have had enjoyable experiences with delicious authentic food, while others have left disappointed and may not be quick to return.
