Here you can find the menu of Taste of Asia Restaurant in Charleston. At the moment, there are 23 dishes and drinks on the card. Located in the South Charleston hill area, this restaurant offers a variety of Asian dishes including red and green curries, tofu, herbal tempura, spring rolls, and more. With three dining areas, guests can enjoy a comfortable setting. The service here is exceptional, with a small team running the place efficiently. The garlic shrimp, broccoli, and shrimp spring rolls come highly recommended. The hot and sour soup is described as the best ever had. For those seeking a Chinese dinner experience, this spot is a great choice. The General Tso's is a standout dish, while the Chicken Pad Thai is good, though the noodles could use improvement. Appetizers like fried dumplings, Volcano sushi roll, and Fuji Apple Sake are fresh and delicious. Although there was a power outage at the Teays Valley location, the food quality remained consistent. If you find yourself at this restaurant, be sure to try the Thai Elephant next door.
