After being avid bistro fans for many years, a recent visit left patrons disappointed due to cold food and long wait times. However, another diner recommended the restaurant, praising the lobster dish and desserts. A second visit yielded positive experiences, with special moments and exquisite food. A bantam hockey team found the restaurant accommodating and friendly, offering a mix of inexpensive and finer dining options. Busy, yet friendly service was noted on a Friday night, with delicious bread, soup, and shrimp dishes. Overall, this popular restaurant offers something for every palate, but reservations are recommended.
