Riley's Bakery in Cornwall has been a local staple since the 1960s, offering homemade bread, pastries, sandwiches, and more. While the new owners don't quite live up to the previous owner, Rob, the quality is still better than many other places. The sandwiches are generously filled and the baked goods are a hit with the locals, always smelling delicious. There is often a wait for lunchtime, but the value and flavors make it worth it. Overall, Riley's Bakery is a small yet mighty gem that continues to serve up big city flavors to its loyal customers, carrying on the legacy of its long-standing tradition.
