The Menu of Poke Bowl-rito from Clovis includes about 20 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $12.0. At this newly discovered poke restaurant, experiences vary widely among diners. While some praise the chipotle-style ordering and fresh ingredients, others express disappointment over service delays and inconsistent food quality. Complaints about portion sizes, particularly a perceived reduction in protein, have emerged, alongside concerns regarding food freshness. A few diners enjoyed sizable sushi burritos and creative toppings, while others encountered issues with expired ingredients affecting their meals. Despite the mixed reviews, the establishment holds potential, particularly for those looking for unique, customizable poke options. Improvements in service and quality could enhance the overall experience.
