This restaurant has a divided opinion when it comes to kids, with one review expressing frustration over a negative experience with children, while another review mentions seeing a lot of families with kids enjoying the atmosphere. The food receives a lot of positive comments, particularly the shrimp tacos and ceviche. Although the ambiance may not be special, the service is praised for being excellent and friendly. The reviews mention that there is a restaurant as well as a food truck for the same business, with the food truck being utilized for seating during busy times. Overall, the food is highlighted as delicious, fresh, and worth the price. While the restaurant may be compact and lack wheelchair accessibility, the service is commended for being fast and attentive. With high praise for the shrimp tacos and enjoyable dining experiences, this seafood spot seems to be a favorite for many patrons, despite a few drawbacks like pricing and limited parking.
