The Card of Basico Bistro Cafe from El Cajon includes about 15 different meals and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $12.4. A restaurant with slow service, bland food, and communication issues left many customers dissatisfied. Long wait times, incorrect orders, and subpar quality of food led to disappointment, with some speculating about changes in management. On the other hand, a couple experienced a fantastic brunch at what was voted the best breakfast spot, with delicious dishes such as chicken and waffles. Overall, mixed reviews leave the future of this restaurant uncertain, with some urging caution and others praising the exceptional food quality. A variety of factors may impact one's dining experience at this establishment.
