Currently, there are 15 courses and drinks up for grabs. Sushi Zono, a beloved staple in the South Bay since 1996, evokes mixed feelings among diners. While loyal patrons celebrate its high-quality sushi, friendly service, and welcoming atmosphere, recent experiences reveal a decline in service and food quality. Some guests report slow service and underwhelming dishes, particularly during busy nights. However, the restaurant remains a favorite for its delightful flavors and has earned a reputation for standout teriyaki and fresh fish. Despite the inconsistency, Sushi Zono continues to be a cherished choice for locals and visitors seeking a satisfying Japanese dining experience.
