In a bustling restaurant scene, this establishment offers an intriguing "make your own boba tea" concept that has garnered mixed reviews. Diners appreciate the customizable drink options and unique classroom-themed decor, with several praising the flavorful Taiwanese dishes, particularly popcorn chicken and cumin chicken. However, concerns over food quality, hygiene, and service have been prominent. Reports of a rude cashier and cleanliness issues, including an insect near food containers, have marred the experience for many. While some patrons rave about the delicious boba and welcoming atmosphere, others recommend exploring alternative dining options for a more satisfying experience.
