Nestled at the lower level of the abandoned Fisherman's Wharf, this restaurant offers a stunning terrace view of the yacht club, making it a picturesque spot for dining. While some guests rave about the ambiance and friendly service, others express dissatisfaction with the food quality, citing overcooked dishes and beverage issues. Despite the mixed reviews, visitors appreciate the vibrant atmosphere and engaging gaming area, highlighted by top-notch pool tables. While renovations may contribute to a chilly dining experience and occasional hiccups in service, many patrons remain hopeful and eager to return, especially once the food menu is fully rolled out.
