The restaurant from San Antonio offers 19 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $3.5. In a recent visit to a local restaurant, guests experienced a mix of service and quality that left much to be desired. While some patrons appreciated the friendly drive-thru staff and the convenience of kiosk ordering, many voiced frustration over inconsistent service, insufficient condiments, and misleading menu images. High prices added to the disappointment, with several asserting that the food lacked quality and quantity. Although cleanliness and quick service were highlights, customers suggested seeking alternative dining options to get better value for their money. Overall, the establishment seems to be in need of a refresh to meet customer expectations.
