The restaurant from Alexandria offers 21 different meals and drinks on the card at an average $15.5. Le Refuge offers classic French cuisine in a charming bistro-style setting. Whether you're looking to enjoy lunch with friends or have a family dinner, this restaurant provides an inviting atmosphere. Owner Jean Francois Chaufour, along with his family, brings the taste of France to Alexandria. Start your meal with appetizers like duck liver mousse with Cognac, baked onion soup with Swiss cheese, or escargot. For the main course, choose from options like sautéed sea scallops, roasted rack of lamb, or chicken breast in a mustard cream sauce. Located across from Christ Church on Washington Street, Le Refuge is known for its extensive wine selection and prix fixe menu. Guests can also dine al fresco on the outdoor patio.
