

GOOD AWARDS ANNOUNCES 2018 WINNERS

Adhuri Jaffrey and Neil Newman gathered to celebrate the 199 winners.

LOS ANGELES, CA (January 22, 2018) – The nation's leading food producers, grocers, chefs, and restaurateurs gathered in San Francisco on Friday, January 19th to honor the 199 Good Food Awards annual awards ceremony now in its eighth year; the Good Food Awards recognizes American crafters who demonstrate a commitment to creating tasty, authentic and responsibly sourced products, and in doing so, better the nation's food system. The 2018 winners are not only committed to creating delicious products but also for their sustainable production methods that showcase the highest social and environmental standards. These producers protect the land, continue to push the bounds of their craft, and inspire their peers, all the while redefining the breadth of the American table.

Good Food Awards distinguished value-added food and beverage products in fifty categories including: cheese, chocolate, cider, coffee, confections, eggs, fish, honey, oils, pantry, and wine. The awards also welcomed the addition of the flour category which encompasses both bread and flour. These foods and beverages collectively represent over $200 billion in sales. The award-winning products are what is larger than the cattle and pork industries combined. The winners were selected from over 2,057 entries in a blind tasting process that was submitted to a rigorous
